Roadway Worker Protection Request

Pursuant to the provisions of 49 CFR Part 214, any person who willfully fails to provide worker protection in accordance with those regulations is subject to a civil penalty in the minimal amount of $2500.00 per violations.

An approved DART Corridor License for Revenue Service and Right-of-Entry (ROE) must be obtained prior to requesting any DCTA Roadway Worker Protection (RWP) services. Copies of the approved license and ROE must be submitted with the RWP course request.

The DCTA Roadway Worker Protection Course must be successfully completed before this form is submitted. Additionally, this form must be completed in its entirety before any RWP services can be authorized.

Requests for RWP services should be submitted at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date the services are required. Work shall not commence until the approved form has been returned to the applicant authorizing the requested flagging services.
